

I get clear and consistent reception from XM and I pay for it. To deny XM the ability to broadcast weather and traffic information to its customers would be wrong. Unlike the traditional broadcast channels, I know that when I need the information I will be able to receive it and I pay for that privilege. To deny me that would be wrong.